

CALIFORNIA CONCERNED PARENTS ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP INCREASE

The California Concerned Parents Association (CCPA) is pleased to report an increase in our membership numbers over the last month.

Despite the agenda of the California Department of Education (CDE) to detour parents using a “fear campaign” during the legal discovery process of this litigation, CCPA has received a combination of several hundred communications, emails, phone calls and membership requests, including outreach from state legislators.

CCPA has a strict policy of not disclosing our membership numbers names with locations of our members. Several members expressed fear of retaliation with their own children if it were known they were a member. This has made us acutely aware of yet additional systemic issues within the local districts, and further supports our allegations that CDE is failing to ensure student with special needs are receiving appropriate special education services.
